

VEHICLE DAY - READING PUBLIC LIBRARY

August 24, 2009

Officer James Collins
Reading Police Department

Reading, MA 01867

Dear Jim,

Every Vehicle Day seems to set some sort of record. This year the weather was the record setter! Even so, over 360 kids and their caregivers braved last Tuesday's heat and enjoyed the event thoroughly as you can see from the enclosed pictures. Thanks for participating.

If you would like a digital copy of the photos to use for your own purposes, please email us at rdgchild@noblenet.org and we will be happy to attach the digital images to a return email.

Vehicle Day is a summer highlight for the Reading Public Library Children's Room and for the whole town as well. You can be certain that we will invite you to join us again next summer for the third Tuesday morning in August. It was very generous of you to join us on your day off, thank you!

Sincerely,

Rachel Baumgartner
Children's Librarian
