Reading Bi-Weekly Update
October 2, 2014

Goodhearts has New Owners!

GoodHearts has new owners! It is now owned and operated by Amy Collins and Karen Martignetti who are long-time residents of Reading. Amy and Karen are graduates of Reading Memorial High School and the University of Massachusetts in Amherst with Bachelor of Science degrees in Apparel Marketing.

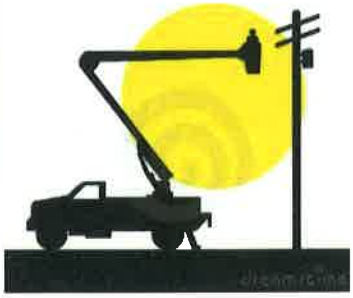
With her extensive background as a buyer for Filene's Basement and Stride Rite footwear for children, Amy has the right amount of retail business knowledge to make sure the store is stocked with the items that customers most often want ... and the experience to purchase the ones that they might occasionally need. As a complement to Amy's buying expertise, Karen has worked for many years as a sales and marketing manager at several software companies with an emphasis on customer service and satisfaction.

As mothers of young children themselves, Amy and Karen understand and appreciate the rewards of finding and shopping at a store that they can rely on and trust for high quality items. That is the kind of store and shopping experience that Amy and Karen would like all of their customers to enjoy at GoodHearts Children's Shop as they help to create special memories and celebrate important milestones for all of their customers, their children and their families and friends.

RMLD Reading Municipal Light Department
RELIABLE POWER FOR GENERATIONS

Celebrate National Public Power Week with us.

- We put safety first.
- We are proudly driven by public service, not profit. Loyalty to our customers, not stockholders.
- We serve you, our fellow citizens, friends and neighbors, and we are accountable to you.
- We provide Reading, North Reading, Wilmington and Lynnfield reliable power and prompt service.
- We are committed to educating our communities on sustainable energy, electric safety and the benefits of local ownership and governance.



Public Power Open House

A fun learning experience for all ages

Thursday, October 9, 2-5 p.m.

RMLD Garage and Tent

218 Ash St., Reading

Prizes, free snacks and drinks!

- Bucket Truck Rides
- Lineman Dress-up and Demos
- Face Painting and Crafts
- Decorate Hard Hats
- Learn about Transmission and Wires
- Safety and Conservation Tips
- Learn about Electric Meters
- Meet Volta the Light Bulb

Questions: If you have any questions about all the activity going on around town… just ask and we will find you the answer!

To subscribe to this Bi-Weekly Update: Send an email request to mknight@ci.reading.ma.us requesting that you be added to the Bi-Weekly Update.