Save the Date

2nd Annual Downtown Reading Trick or Treat October 28 from 4:00 to 5:30 PM

Calling all ghouls, girls, and boys! Hop in your costumes and head to Downtown Reading to enjoy a spooktacular late-afternoon filled with fun and lots of treats and candy! Our local businesses will be open and giving out candy to all. Local organizations will have tables set up with more treats and candy. Participating businesses will be identified with balloons outside their storefronts. Start anywhere you want on the route of treats... see the blue route on the map on the next page. Maps with parking and participating businesses will be available online at www.readingrec.com and at the event.

Don't forget to come to the Town Hall and the Police Station where all the departments will be giving out candy and treats to all the little ghosts and ghouls and vampires!

Be sure to visit the Pleasant Street Senior Center for cider and doughnuts and a chance to weigh your candy bag. Heaviest bag will win a special prize so make sure you trick and trick a lot before going to the Senior Center!

Halloween Bags will be provided to the first 1,000 participants! They will be available at the Town Recreation Department, Senior Center, RCTV, and The Hitching Post.

The Leaves

The leaves had a wonderful frolic.
They danced to the wind's loud song.
They whirled, and they floated, and scampered.
They circled and flew along.

The moon saw the little leaves dancing.
Each looked like a small brown bird.
The man in the moon smiled and listened.
And this is the song he heard.

The North Wind is calling, is calling,
And we must whirl round and round,
And then, when our dancing is ended,
We'll make a warm quilt for the ground.
