VOLUNTEER VACANCY
TOWN OF READING
AD HOC READING FIREARMS SAFETY COMMITTEE

Seven vacancies with terms expiring December 31, 2015 exist on the ad hoc Reading Firearms Safety Committee. The vacancies consist of two members from the Board of Selectmen; the Police Chief or designee; one Town Meeting Member; three residents at large that may not fulfill any other requirements listed above. The Board of Selectmen will attempt to include in those members at least one resident from the Timberneck Swamp neighborhood.

The purpose of the Committee is to:

1. Suggest strategies that shall improve the safety of nearby residents and travelers through the neighborhood of the Timberneck Swamp;
2. investigate the history of the Timberneck Swamp and how it was designated conservation land with an island of private land in the middle of it;
3. review General Bylaw 8.9.1 and draft a revision that protects the rights and interests of all town citizens; and
4. report its progress to the Board of Selectmen by August 2015 in order to determine if any November Town Meeting action will be requested.

Interested persons may apply at the Town Clerk's office, 16 Lowell Street, Reading, Massachusetts until the positions have been filled.
