

WALK READING WEEKEND

JUNE 4 - JUNE 5

WALK, BIKE, HIKE OR RUN & EXPLORE YOUR TOWN

To participate in Walk Reading Weekend: Put on something red and step out of your door and enjoy or explore Reading by foot or by bike. Then when you get back, report your travels. Let's see how far Reading can go! Anytime on June 4th or 5th, walk, bike, hike or run anywhere in Reading. Leave your car behind and walk or bike to your Reading Destination! Walk Reading Weekend promotes outdoor enjoyment of Reading, builds community spirit and improves the health of our citizens.

Not sure Where to Walk? Try some sponsored events in the table below:

Date	Event	Meeting Place
Sat. June 4 9:00 AM	Sledge Woods ROLT property trail	Meet at the end of Pasture Road
Sat. June 4 10:00 AM	Evergreen Trail (between Kylie Dr & Charles St)	Meet at Kylie Drive
Sat. June 4 1:00 PM	Historic Houses Walking Tour Rain Date June 5 at 1:00 PM	Meet at Parker Tavern, 103 Washington Street
Sun. June 5 8:00 AM	Birds of the Ipswich River	Town Forest, Meet at Wood End School, Sunset Rock Lane
Sun. June 5 1:00 PM	Bare Meadow Conservation Area	Meet at Mattera Cabin, 1481 Main Street
June 4-5	Geocache www.geocaching.com	Search "Reading Geo-Center"

Check the Reading Trails Committee webpage for up-to-date information & trail maps:

www.readingma.gov/trails-committee

Sponsored by Walkable Reading, Reading Open Land Trust, and the Reading Trails Committee. See our Facebook pages for more info. Log your miles on the Walkable Reading Facebook page (use the QR code at the top of this page) or email us.

Questions? walkablereading@comcast.net