QUESTIONS

Question 1:

Shall the Town of Reading approve the amendments to Article 4 of the Reading Home Rule Charter, proposed by the November 8, 2010 Subsequent Town Meeting, which are summarized below:

Article 4 – Appointed Boards and Committees

Section 4-10 (a) This section will be deleted to eliminate the Land Bank Committee.

YES

Section 4-10 (b) This section is relettered as Section 4-10 (a).

NO

Section 4-10 (c) This section is relettered as Section 4-10 (b).

Question 2:

Shall the Town of Reading approve the amendments to Article 2 of the Reading Home Rule Charter, proposed by the November 8, 2010 Subsequent Town Meeting, which are summarized below:

Article 2 – Representative Town Meeting

Section 2-15: Referendum Procedure This amendment clarifies the process for filing a referendum petition to submit an affirmative vote of the Town Meeting to the voters in the form of a ballot question, and establishes the form of the petition to be circulated for signatures. The amendment requires that the ballot question be set forth at the top of each petition form and be identical to the ballot question that will appear on the official ballot. Circulators may make additional copies of the petition form but each copy must be an exact duplicate. The petition form must have language advising voters that it may not be altered in any way, and that no extraneous markings may appear on the petition form or the signatures on that petition form may be invalidated. Extraneous markings do not include signatures and addresses. The petition form must also include language advising that only the signatures of registered voters will be valid, that the petition form should not be signed more than once, and that they may authorize another person to write their name and address on the petition form if they are physically unable to do so. The back of each petition form shall instruct voters to read the signer information on the front before signing. In addition to certifying signatures, the amendment authorizes the Board of Registrar of Voters to examine the petition forms for alterations and extraneous markings.

NO

In addition, the separate paragraphs of Section 2-15 have been given lettered subsections.
